OUTFITS

Welcome

Hello and nice to meet you! You now have a very exciting guide that will take you through 25 different boudoir outfit ideas for your experience.

The beautiful thing about boudoir is there is no proper outfit. There is no perfect image, and it is not for a specific type of person. You can wear anything from a wedding veil to a white bedsheet. This guide will give you some inspiration.

Bonus: We've put a few of my favorite tips on how to approach your photo/video shoot. You definitely want to check these out.

And if you have any questions at all shoot me an email at:

1. Boots

Boots are like the sexy step sister to heels. So fun, so playful. It can be a sexy pose to be pulling them on ready for a night out. You can wear them with a dress or with lingerie.

2. Bridal

Congrats on your wedding! A lot of people think bridal boudoir pictures means your veil is the focal point. Not true. There are so many different white pieces you can wear to get the bridal look without any of the cheese.

3. Garter

The garter is the perfect accessory to match with your bridal lingerie. They are going to be slipping it off with their teeth come wedding day so it is a playfun hint at what is to come.

4. Button Up Shirt

This is a huge favorite! It is so versatile. The button up shirt look has a feel of waking up late on a sunday and tossing on a favorite shirt of your partner's. It can be tame all the way buttoned up or spicy pulling it open, taking it off, or letting it lay so it just barely covers you.

5. Cocktail Dress

It's ideal to start photoshoots in a cocktail dress because it can tell a story of the first part of the date. When the page turns and you are unzipping or sliding it off it is a beautiful suggest for what we can expect in the next few pages! It is also a great to ease into the shoot if the idea of shooting in lingerie still intimidates you (which it does for most!)

6. Corset

What every happened to corsets? We get it, you can't breathe in them, but WOW do they look amazing in photos. They are incredible flattering on every body type and give off a subtle role play vibe that can really add to the mood of your shoot.

7. Crop Top

Some people really love lacy lingerie, some really love casual fridays and some love both. The crop top can do wonders for your shape and it is so suggestive. Play around with ones that are loose, tight, cut out in the back and various lengths. We think you will find something you really like.

8. Fishnets

These really work for a specific style. It isn't for everyone, but can definitely add some fire to your outfit with the right heels and garter belt!

9. Garter Belts

Nine out of ten women have no idea how to put these on. This is pretty similar to groomsmen trying to put on a tie at their friends wedding. When garter belts are paired with stockings and heels they can add a few inches to your legs.

10. Heels

A classic. Heels do so many things. They make your legs look longer, tone up your calves, help your posture, and add an extra layer of sex appeal to almost any lingerie outfit. Even if casual is your thing it is still recommend bringing at least one pair.

11. Halter Bra

These usually come with a beautiful pattern all the way up to your neck line. This is perfect if you are looking for something more modest.

12. High Waisted

Everything old is new again. High waisted bottoms were popular back in the 70's. They look SO amazing in pictures. They have a way of slimming the stomach and the cheekie bottoms create an amazing curve on your bum to really highlight your assets.

13. Jeans

Jeans are another one of those more everyday outfits that you can make sexy and suggestive by unzipping them in a photo or doing a picture with only the pants and no shirt on. Jeans can give a girl next door character that is super playful.

14. Jersey

Let's get real for a second. Jersey's are designed be worn over pads and large men and nothing about them will flatter your curves. If you HAVE to wear a jersey during your shoot, get a fitted t-shirt with the teams logo. This will fit better and be much sexier.

15. SEE THROUGH ITEMS

We love them because they are really unique and have great wow factor. You can get creative with this and find unexpected things that specifically show off your favorite bits.

16. Robes

It can be hard to style an outfit that isn't just a bra and panties. Robes can give the idea of lounging around the house, they can be playful to slip off or can even be worn without a bra underneath to add something to the imagination.

17. Stockings

Stockings, heels, garterbelt... they all add up to the same thing. We try to do at least one outfit every session that is dressed to the 9's. Feel free to get something outside of the standard black. Get something with a tiny pattern in it or something with a design over the thigh. Be careful not to get a size too small. This will squeeze in your thighs and they will have a harder time staying up.

18. Off The Shoulder Sweater

This is what we most commonly start off shoots with because it is playful, it gives your hands something to do, it is suggestive and there is something about pulling clothes in all different directions that is so sexy.

19. Rompers & Teddys

Body suits or two-piece sets, these are the most underrated lingerie there is. They are incredibly flattering on all body types. There are a million different designs for how they cover you and they are more versital than you would think.

20. Themed

This is definitely a great idea because the line between playful and sexy is exexciting. If you have an idea let us know, because these photos can be better in some cases than the other options laid out in this guide.

21. T-Shirt

This is another casual option to start off your shoot with. There are a million poses you can do with a t-shirt a shot of you taking it off makes the perfect transition to show the next outfit on the following page of your album.

22. Bed Sheet

This is such a favorite of so many women because it is the ultimate “leave a little to the imagination.” You can appear completely naked while revealing less than most pictures in typical lingerie. The white sheet is usually one of the final “outfits” and it ends the session with a bang.

23. Glasses

Glasses are a fun little accessory. Nerds are sexy and it can be a fun character to jump into for a few pictures.

24. Nothing

Nude is totally an outfit option. Bare it all or cover up with fabric, hands, or whatever else is around. This is completely up to you to do nude shots and how much you want to show. Whatever you answer is fine.

25. Jewelry

You are the most important thing in these pictures, and too many accessories can be a distraction. That said a few peices here and there can really bring an outfit together or they can BE the outfit! Feel free to bring necklaces, bracelets or body jewelry you think would add to your photos!

Shooting Tips

1. Focus on Having Fun

Focus on having fun, not on how to look perfect – that's your photographer's job. If you're having a great time, that will show through in the photos. Having a good time is sexy!

2. Visualize

Visualize yourself having a great time before the shoot even begins. Take a few minutes out of each day leading up to your shoot to imagine yourself, out on the floor, doing what you do, feeling sexy, everything going smoothly, then seeing the photos and loving them. Get as specific as you can: the more you visualize, the more you'll be ready!

3. Get Inspired

Look at your favorite magazines, films, models, lingerie store, art, etc to begin recognizing your personal style - what do you think is sexy? This will help you communicate with your photographer and make your shoot go more smoothly.

4. Give It All You've Got

Bring your sass, confidence, and power. Be open. The best shoots work with clients who don't hold back.

5. Be Sensual

Use your senses during the shoot to make yourself feel sexy. Taste your favorite wine. Wear your best perfume. Compose the perfect outfit that makes you feel like a vixen. Listen to songs that turn you on. Do whatever you need to do to make you feel hot!

6. Be Silly

As soon as you start embracing your silliness, all shyness goes out the window. Be a ham! Goof off and have fun! Test yourself to see how outrageous you can be – it is easier to have to you "tone down" rather than "fire up". Go for it!

7. Embrace Your Movement

Don't know how to pose like a model? Then don't! Be natural! Move in ways that make you feel sexy, and keep it different for every shot. Do you know how to flirt? Have fun with your session, "flirt" your way to those perfect shots.

8. Remember Why You're Here

Simply being in front of a camera is sexy - it's powerful and vulnerable at the same time, and if you keep in mind what you plan to do with these photos, you'll be even more driven to do your best.

9. Become an actress

Don't feel particularly sexy today? Put yourself in a new character - be your favorite sexy movie actress, celebrity, or model - imagine whatever you need to get that sexiness flowing.

10. Be Yourself

If acting it isn't your style, be who you are (that's usually the best route!) Be comfortable with who you are, in the moment. Don't wait around to lose a few pounds or change your hair color -- embrace the you of today! You are sexy and beautiful exactly as you are.
